

What did Hoover, Truman, and Eisenhower have in common?

Here is something that should be of great interest for you.
I didn't know of this until it was pointed out to me.

President Herbert Hoover, back during The Great Depression, ordered the deportation of ALL illegal aliens in order to make jobs available to American citizens that desperately needed work.

President Harry Truman deported over two million Illegals after WWII to create jobs for returning veterans.

President Dwight Eisenhower in 1954 deported 13 million Mexican Nationals! The program was called 'Operation Wetback'. It was done so WWII and Korean Veterans would have a better chance at jobs. It took 2 Years, but they were deported.

Now...if they could deport the illegals back then - they could sure do it today? Who are the powers that be protecting during this economic downturn?

If you have doubts about the veracity of this information, enter Operation Wetback into your favorite search engine and confirm it for yourself. Snopes.com would work.
